Lottus barstool

Lievore Altherr Molina

A series of stools composed of one-piece, seat and backrest, injected polypropylene shells with the possibility of combining colours and plastic or textile finishes. All mounted on different metallic lacquered, chrome or stainless steel tube structures.

The polypropylene shells can be one-colour or combined with a polypropylene or upholstered round seat panel; while the bases are available in 3 different formats: 4 swivel legs, swivel central base with square foot, or fixed sledge foot, those last two comes in 2 heights, 977mm or 877mm.

The versatility resulting from these combinations make Lottus an ideal choice for a wide range of situations, whether in the office or at home.
